GSDCA WENDELL NOPE
(UNITED STATES)

TRACKING JUDGE

Wendell Nope is a 40-year career law enforcement officer, now functioning as a Sergeant at the Utah Police Academy in charge of the Police Dog Program for the last 32 years. Wendell became involved in the IGP (a.k.a. Schutzhund) sport in 1978. He was instantly attracted to the complexity and exactness it requires. Each of his several police dogs since that time has also received IGP training. He first became a Club Helper and eventually Training Director and functioned in those capacities for many years. He has personally been instrumental in the forming of three Clubs in three different states.

He has unique law enforcement experiences which benefit his involvement in the IGP sport. He deployed his Police FH (in training) to successfully track multiple heinous criminals, including murder suspects. He also deployed multiple Patrol Dogs over the years that were cross-trained in Schutzhund to assist in capturing numerous felons of various hostile crimes.

He is the first American police officer to receive complete training at one of the German government's foremost police dog schools, ultimately achieving a certification from the German government as a Police Dog Teaching Judge. Shortly after this achievement, he also became a Schutzhund Judge in the United States. Then, in 2012 he was inducted as an SV Foreign Judge. He has functioned in that capacity since then.

Wendell Nope is the current Director of Trials and Judges for the GSDCA SV Programs.

DEMETRIUS PETTWAY

My name is Demetrius Pettway. Having been certified in the year 2020, I have been professionally training dogs since then.

My passion for dogs started way back when I was 4 years old and my motivation to get into dog training was influenced by Jerry Barnes, a renowned dog trainer who took it upon himself to offer me his support. My satisfaction comes from the hours I invest into training and ensuring each dog that passes through my hands gets the maximum training they deserve.

MARK TORRENCE*HELPERS

Mark Torrence was born and raised in Fort Washington, MD, in the Washington, D.C., area. He belongs to the Commonwealth Working Dog Club, where he is the club training director and helper. He also serves as the club President and helper for the Greater Washington DC Schutzhund Group.

In 2013, he worked at the GSDCA-WDA Nationals, where he was selected as a helper for tryouts for the 2013 WUSV WORLD Championship.

He was then selected to do the front Half of the WUSV WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP for 2013. To date, he considers this his greatest accomplishment, as he also worked over 100 dogs with an excellent rating from the judge.

The following year, he was chosen to do helper work for the 2014 WUSV WORLD Qualifier and got the back half with an excellent rating.

He then did the back half at the 2016 GSDCA Nationals at Purina Farms and was selected for the front half at the 2016 WUSV World qualifier in Illinois. Later in 2016, he did the front half of DVG NATIONALS, all with excellent and consistent ratings.

In 2021 he worked the GSDC NATIONALS back half with over 30 dogs with an excellent rating from the judge and, in 2022, did the front half of the DVG Regionals with excellent ratings.

Mark takes great pride in his helper work, ensuring he is consistently in top shape, so he can always work dogs safely and to the best of his ability.
